

Category: Caregiver

Leave Type	Description
Caregiver Paid - Continuous	Employee is on a continuous leave to care for a family member and is receiving pay (typically from own accruals).
Caregiver Paid - Intermittent	Employee is on an intermittent leave to care for a family member and is receiving pay for their absences under this leave (typically from own accruals).
Caregiver Paid - Reduced Schedule	Employee is on a reduced schedule leave to care for a family member and is receiving pay for the days/times they are not working (typically from own accruals or hours worked).
Caregiver Paid Over 1 Year - Continuous	Employee is on a continuous leave to care for a family member and is receiving pay (typically from own accruals). This employee has been on leave for over 1 year. Only for extenuating circumstances.
Caregiver Unpaid - Continuous	Employee is on a continuous leave to care for a family member and is not receiving any pay.
Caregiver Unpaid - Intermittent	Employees is on an intermittent leave to care for a family member and is not receiving pay for their absences under this leave.
Caregiver Unpaid - Reduced Schedule	Employee is on a reduced schedule leave to care for a family member and is not receiving any pay for the days/times they are not working.
Caregiver Unpaid Over 1 Year - Continuous	Employee is on a continuous leave to care for a family member and is not receiving any pay. This employee has been on leave for over 1 year. Only for extenuating circumstances.

Category: Military

Leave Type	Description
Military Paid - Continuous	Employee is on a continuous military leave and is receiving pay (typically from own accruals).
Military Paid - Intermittent	Employee is on an intermittent military leave and is receiving pay for their absences under this leave (typically from own accruals).
Military Paid - Reduced Schedule	Employee is on a reduced schedule military leave and is receiving pay for the days/times they are not working (typically from own accruals or hours worked).
Military Paid Over 1 Year - Continuous	Employee is on a continuous military leave and is receiving pay (typically from own accruals). Employee has been on leave for over 1 year.
Military Unpaid - Continuous	Employee is on a continuous military leave and is not receiving any pay from Yale. Employee may be receiving pay from the military and may be eligible to apply for supplemental pay from Yale.
Military Unpaid - Intermittent	Employee is on an intermittent military leave and is not receiving any pay from Yale for their absences under this leave. Employee may be receiving pay from the military and may be eligible to apply for supplemental pay from Yale.
Military Unpaid - Reduced Schedule	Employee is on a reduced schedule military leave and is not receiving any pay from Yale for the days/times they are not working. Employee may be receiving pay from the military and may be eligible to apply for supplemental pay from Yale.
Military Unpaid Over 1 Year + - Continuous	Employee is on a continuous military leave and is not receiving any pay from Yale. Employee may be receiving pay from the military and may be eligible to apply for supplemental pay from Yale. Employee has been on leave for over 1 year.

Category: Military Exigency

Leave Type	Description
Military Exigency Paid - Continuous	Employee is on a continuous leave to care for a family member due to military service and is receiving pay (typically from own accruals).
Military Exigency Paid - Intermittent	Employee is on an intermittent leave to care for a family member due to military service and is receiving pay for their absences under this leave (typically from own accruals).
Military Exigency Paid - Reduced Schedule	Employee is on a reduced schedule leave to care for a family member due to military service and is receiving pay for the days/times they are not working (typically from own accruals or hours worked).
Military Exigency Paid Over 1 Year - Continuous	Employee is on a continuous leave to care for a family due to military service and is receiving pay (typically from own accruals). Employee has been on leave for over 1 year.
Military Exigency Unpaid - Continuous	Employee is on a continuous leave to care for a family member due to military service and is not receiving any pay.
Military Exigency Unpaid - Intermittent	Employee is on an intermittent leave to care for a family member due to military service and is not receiving any pay from Yale for their absences under this leave.
Military Exigency Unpaid - Reduced Schedule	Employee is on a reduced schedule leave to care for a family member due to military service and is not receiving any pay from Yale for the days/times they are not working.
Military Exigency Unpaid Over 1 Year - Continuous	Employee is on a continuous leave to care for a family member due to military service and is not receiving any pay. Employee has been on leave for over 1 year.

Category: Own Health (2 pages)

Leave Type	Description
Own Health LTD 60% No Supplement - Continuous	Employee is on a continuous leave for their own health and is receiving pay from Long Term Disability from The Standard for 60% of their pre-disability earnings. They are not receiving any pay for the remaining 40%.
Own Health LTD 60% No Supplement - Intermittent	Employee is on an intermittent leave for their own health and is receiving pay for their absences under this leave from Long Term Disability from The Standard for 60% of their pre-disability earnings. They are not receiving any pay for the remaining 40%.
Own Health LTD 60% No Supplement - Reduced Schedule	Employee is on a reduced schedule leave for their own health and is receiving pay for the days/times they are not working from Long Term Disability from The Standard for 60% of their pre-disability earnings. They are not receiving any pay for the remaining 40%.
Own Health LTD 60% No Supplement Over 1 Year - Continuous	Employee is on a continuous leave for their own health and is receiving pay from Long Term Disability from The Standard for 60% of their pre-disability earnings. They are not receiving any pay for the remaining 40%. The employee has been on leave for over 1 year. Only for extenuating circumstances.
Own Health LTD w/ 40% Supplement - Continuous	Employee is on a continuous leave for their own health and is receiving pay from Long Term Disability from The Standard for 60% of their pre-disability earnings. They are also receiving pay for the remaining 40% (typically from own accruals).
Own Health LTD w/ 40% Supplement - Intermittent	Employee is on an intermittent leave for their own health and is receiving pay for their absences under this leave from Long Term Disability from The Standard for 60% of their pre-disability earnings. They are also receiving pay for the remaining 40% (typically from own accruals or hours worked).
Own Health LTD w/ 40% Supplement - Reduced Schedule	Employee is on a reduced schedule leave for their own health and is receiving pay for the days/times they are not working from Long Term Disability from The Standard for 60% of their pre-disability earnings. They are also receiving pay for the remaining 40% (typically from own accruals or hours worked).
Own Health LTD w/ 40% Supplement Over 1 Year - Continuous	Employee is on a continuous leave for their own health and is receiving pay from Long Term Disability from The Standard for 60% of their pre-disability earnings. They are also receiving pay for the remaining 40% (typically from own accruals). The employee has been on leave for over 1 year.
Own Health Paid - Continuous	Employee is on a continuous leave for their own health and is receiving pay (typically from own accruals).
Own Health Paid - Intermittent	Employee is on an intermittent leave for their own health and is receiving pay for their absences under this leave (typically from own accruals).
Own Health Paid - Reduced Schedule	Employee is on a reduced schedule leave for their own health and is receiving pay for the days/times they are not working (typically from own accruals or hours worked).
Own Health Paid Over 1 Year - Continuous	Employee is on a continuous leave for their own health and is receiving pay (typically from own accruals). The employee has been on leave for over 1 year. Only for extenuating circumstances.

Own Health STD 100% - Continuous	Employee is on a continuous leave for their own health and is receiving pay from Short Term Disability. This leave type is used for M&P employees only.
Own Health STD 100% - Intermittent	Employee is on an intermittent leave for their own health and is receiving pay for their absences under this leave from Short Term Disability. This leave type is used for M&P employees only.
Own Health STD 100% - Reduced Schedule	Employee is on a reduced schedule leave for their own health and is receiving pay for the days/times they are not working from Short Term Disability. This leave type is used for M&P employees only.
Own Health STD 60% No Supplement - Continuous	Employee is on a continuous leave for their own health and is receiving pay from Short Term Disability for 60% of their salary. They are not receiving any pay for the remaining 40%. This leave type is used for M&P employees only.
Own Health STD 60% No Supplement - Intermittent	Employee is on an intermittent leave for their own health and is receiving pay for their absences under this leave from Short Term Disability for 60% of their salary. They are not receiving any pay for the remaining 40%. This leave type is used for M&P employees only.
Own Health STD 60% No Supplement - Reduced Schedule	Employee is on a reduced schedule leave for their own health and is receiving pay for the days/times they are not working from Short Term Disability for 60% of their salary. They are not receiving any pay for the remaining 40%. This leave type is used for M&P employees only.
Own Health STD 60% w/ 40% Supplement - Continuous	Employee is on a continuous leave for their own health and is receiving pay from Short Term Disability for 60% of their salary. They are also receiving pay for the remaining 40% (typically from own accruals). This leave type is used for M&P employees only.
Own Health STD 60% w/ 40% Supplement - Intermittent	Employee is on an intermittent leave for their own health and is receiving pay for their absences under this leave from Short Term Disability for 60% of their salary. They are also receiving pay for the remaining 40% (typically from own accruals). This leave type is used for M&P employees only.
Own Health STD 60% w/ 40% Supplement - Reduced Schedule	Employee is on a reduced schedule leave for their own health and is receiving pay for the days/times they are not working from Short Term Disability for 60% of their salary. They are also receiving pay for the remaining 40% (typically from own accruals or hours worked). This leave type is used for M&P employees only.
Own Health Unpaid - Continuous	Employee is on a continuous leave for their own health and is not receiving any pay.
Own Health Unpaid - Intermittent	Employees is on an intermittent leave for their own health and is not receiving pay for their absences under this leave.
Own Health Unpaid - Reduced Schedule	Employee is on a reduced schedule leave for their own health and is not receiving any pay for the days/times they are not working.
Own Health Unpaid Over 1 Year - Continuous	Employee is on a continuous leave for their own health and is not receiving any pay. The employee has been on this leave for over 1 year. Only for extenuating circumstances.

Category: Personal

Leave Type	Description
Personal Confidential Paid - Continuous	Employee is on a continuous confidential personal leave and is receiving pay (typically from own accruals).
Personal Confidential Paid - Intermittent	Employee is on an intermittent confidential personal leave and is receiving pay for their absences under this leave (typically from own accruals).
Personal Confidential Paid - Reduced Schedule	Employee is on a reduced schedule confidential personal leave and is receiving pay for the days/times they are not working (typically from own accruals or hours worked).
Personal Confidential Unpaid - Continuous	Employee is on a continuous confidential personal leave and is not receiving any pay.
Personal Confidential Unpaid - Intermittent	Employee is on an intermittent confidential personal leave and is not receiving any pay from Yale for their absences under this leave.
Personal Confidential Unpaid - Reduced Schedule	Employee is on a reduced schedule confidential personal leave and is not receiving any pay from Yale for the days/times they are not working.
Personal Paid - Continuous	Employee is on a continuous personal leave and is receiving pay (typically from own accruals).
Personal Paid - Intermittent	Employee is on an intermittent personal leave and is receiving pay for their absences under this leave (typically from own accruals).
Personal Paid - Reduced Schedule	Employee is on a reduced schedule personal leave and is receiving pay for the days/times they are not working (typically from own accruals or hours worked).
Personal Unpaid - Continuous	Employee is on a continuous personal leave and is not receiving any pay.
Personal Unpaid - Intermittent	Employee is on an intermittent personal leave and is not receiving any pay from Yale for their absences under this leave.
Personal Unpaid - Reduced Schedule	Employee is on a reduced schedule personal leave and is not receiving any pay from Yale for the days/times they are not working.

Category: Pregnancy/Child Rearing

Leave Type	Description
Child Rearing Paid - Continuous	Employee is on a continuous leave for child rearing/bonding and is receiving pay (typically from own accruals).
Child Rearing Paid - Intermittent	Employee is on an intermittent leave for child rearing/bonding and is receiving pay for their absences under this leave (typically from own accruals).
Child Rearing Paid - Reduced Schedule	Employee is on a reduced schedule leave for child rearing/bonding and is receiving pay for the days/times they are not working (typically from own accruals or hours worked).
Child Rearing Paid Over 1 Year - Continuous	Employee is on a continuous leave for child rearing/bonding and is receiving pay (typically from own accruals). This employee has been on leave for over 1 year. Only for extenuating circumstances.
Child Rearing Unpaid - Continuous	Employee is on a continuous leave for child rearing/bonding and is not receiving any pay.
Child Rearing Unpaid - Intermittent	Employee is on an intermittent leave for child rearing/bonding and is not receiving pay for their absences under this leave.
Child Rearing Unpaid - Reduced Schedule	Employee is on a reduced schedule leave for child rearing/bonding and is not receiving any pay for the days/times they are not working.
Child Rearing Unpaid Over 1 Year - Continuous	Employee is on a continuous leave for child rearing/bonding and is not receiving any pay. This employee has been on leave for over 1 year. Only for extenuating circumstances.
Pregnancy Paid - Continuous	Employee is on a continuous leave for pregnancy and is receiving pay (typically from own accruals).
Pregnancy Paid - Intermittent	Employee is on an intermittent leave for pregnancy and is receiving pay for their absences under this leave (typically from own accruals).
Pregnancy Paid - Reduced Schedule	Employee is on a reduced schedule leave for their own health and is receiving pay for the days/times they are not working (typically from own accruals or hours worked).
Pregnancy Paid Over 1 Year - Continuous	Employee is on a continuous leave for pregnancy and is receiving pay (typically from own accruals). This employee has been on leave for over 1 year. Only for extenuating circumstances.
Pregnancy Unpaid - Continuous	Employee is on a continuous leave for pregnancy and is not receiving any pay.
Pregnancy Unpaid - Intermittent	Employee is on an intermittent leave for pregnancy and is not receiving pay for their absences under this leave.
Pregnancy Unpaid - Reduced Schedule	Employee is on a reduced schedule leave for their own health and is not receiving any pay for the days/times they are not working.
Pregnancy Unpaid Over 1 Year - Continuous	Employee is on a continuous leave for pregnancy and is not receiving any pay. This employee has been on leave for over 1 year. Only for extenuating circumstances.

Category: Workers' Comp

Leave Type	Description
Workers' Comp No Supplement - Continuous	Employee is on a continuous workers' compensation leave. They are receiving workers' compensation indemnity benefits from CorVel and are not receiving any pay from Yale.
Workers' Comp No Supplement - Intermittent	Employee is on an intermittent workers' compensation leave. They are receiving workers' compensation indemnity benefits from CorVel but are not receiving supplemental pay from Yale for their absences under this leave.
Workers' Comp No Supplement - Reduced Schedule	Employee is on a reduced schedule workers' compensation leave. They are receiving workers' compensation indemnity benefits from CorVel but are not receiving supplemental pay from Yale for the days/times they are not working.
Workers' Comp w/ Supplement - Continuous	Employee is on a continuous workers' compensation leave. They are receiving workers' compensation indemnity benefits from CorVel and are receiving supplemental pay from Yale for the remaining amount (may be from own accruals or Police department pay).
Workers' Comp w/ Supplement - Intermittent	Employee is on an intermittent workers' compensation leave. They are receiving workers' compensation indemnity benefits and are receiving supplemental pay from Yale (may be from own accruals or Police department pay).
Workers' Comp w/ Supplement - Reduced Schedule	Employee is on a reduced schedule workers' compensation leave. They are receiving workers' compensation indemnity benefits from CorVel and are receiving supplemental pay from Yale for the days/times they are not working (may be from own accruals, Police department pay, or hours worked).