Living in the Elm City

A Guide to Getting Around New Haven
Welcome to Yale!

Welcome to your new home! There's so much to do in New Haven that some guidance will go a long way toward making sure you get the most out of the Elm City. The Yale Housing Office has prepared this guide for your own use. Included is a comprehensive list of restaurants, pharmacies, bars, entertainment venues, and even barber shops. This is by no means everything that the Elm City has to offer but rather a selection carefully crafted in order to ensure that you know where to find things as different as Cuban food, coffee and toiletries and local parks.

If you want to do your own exploring, this guide provides suggestions of places to start. If you want to explore later, but want to start with something a little more structured, consider taking a campus tour. The Yale Visitor Information Center is located at 149 Elm St., and their number is (203) 432-2300. Their office is open from 9:00 a.m. – 4:30 p.m. on weekdays and from 11:00 a.m. – 4:00 p.m. on weekends. Free Campus tours (approximately 1 hour in length) are given Monday through Friday at 10:30 a.m. and 2:00 p.m., and on Saturdays and Sundays at 1:30 p.m.

Local Transit
Living car-free in New Haven is possible because many goods and services are within bicycling and walking distance to campus. For a list of useful places in and around New Haven visit: to.yale.edu/car-free. Local buses, run by CTTransit, can take you anywhere in New Haven and to nearby towns. For information on routes, fares, and to purchase a bus pass, visit: www.cttransit.com.

Get directions using Google Transit, maps.google.com. Enter in your home address and the destination address, click “get directions,” and Google will tell you how to get there by train or bus.

On Campus Transit
Yale Parking and Transit also manages the University shuttle system. Yale shuttle information and schedules are available online at to.yale.edu. Shuttle service is FREE to students and spouses with Yale I.D. Spousal ID’s can be obtained by visiting the I.D. Center, located at 246 Church Street. Shuttles can also be tracked live with the TransLoc app for smart phones.

Yale affiliates can also look into using the Yale Bikeshare Zagster program by visiting to.yale.edu/yale-bikeshare.
Rail Service
New York City is also just a short train ride away. MetroNorth trains leave New Haven's Union Station approximately every 30 minutes during peak times and every hour during off peak times.
