1 RECAP OF RECENT OSP TRAINING UPDATES

NEW NIH K Award Fundamentals – online training (VPN required)
This online training course is intended for those who work in department business offices (DBOs) and have the responsibility of managing NIH K Awards. This training is designed to provide DBOs with the information and tools needed to better understand the unique requirements of NIH Career Development Awards (CDAs), commonly referred to as "K" Awards.

NEW Subaward Management Overview – online training (VPN required)
This course is designed for finance staff who review or approve subaward invoices on both Federal and non-Federal grant funding. It provides end-users with an in-depth overview of policy and procedures around the approval of subaward invoices.

NEW NCURA Webinar: Audits: What's Hot
This webinar is a professional development opportunity that focuses on a recap of the NSF, NIH, NSF Covid audit initiative and other OIG Audit work plans and recent audit results and settlements. This webinar provides an in-depth look at audit issues through a combination of audit trends, review of Federal audit reports, and a discussion of day-to-day best practices

4 NEW BSF LOGIN

Following a request from the Israel National Cybersecurity Directorate, the US-Israel Binational Foundation (BSF) has made changes to login procedures for its on-line registration and submission system. As a result, you will no longer be able to enter the system with your USERID and password.

Instead, entrance into the BSF on-line system is facilitated via use of email and password that is defined by the registrant. Therefore, all users of the system (applicants, awardees and research administrators) are required to register again with the email address that is used in correspondence with BSF.

If you don't know the email address that is used in BSF correspondence then you can retrieve this by following this link: http://login.bsf.org.il/ElectronicSubmission/CheckIfRegistered.aspx (if you received this communication directly from BSF, then use that email address).

First time users of the BSF on-line system need to register by following this link: http://login.bsf.org.il/login/Account/Register

After registering with your email address, you can log into the new system via: http://login.bsf.org.il/Login/
