2 Updates to 1306 Fr. 06 – Responsible Personnel Change Form

The Responsible Personnel Change form has been updated effective October 19, 2021. Please make sure that you are submitting the most current version of the form to avoid having the request returned. The updates include reminder language about the significance of COI review when designating new Responsible Personnel on a sponsored project. Additionally, it includes certification language similar to the language that PIs attest to during the IRES Proposal Development (PD) routing and approval process. The form should be utilized as part of the change of PI process or when there are other changes to responsible personnel on sponsored awards, cooperation agreements, contracts, or clinical trials. If you should have questions, please contact your OSP award or contract manager.

3 Effort Certification Workshops

The effort certification team will be offering workshops to departments during the open Fall 2021 effort period, releasing January 31, 2022. This will give departments/units the opportunity to ask questions regarding process related issues and to speak openly about specific departmental personnel. These are not individual training sessions, but departmental group sessions. If interested, Ops Managers or Lead Admins should contact effort.reports@yale.edu to set up a session for their business office. Individuals are required to have completed the Principles of Effort training course prior to attending these sessions.

4 Coming Soon – New NIH “Forms G” Grant Application Forms and Instructions

The NIH, FDA and AHRQ will be updating their form set to Forms G, effective January 25, 2022.

Key changes:

- As part of the federal-wide transition from the DUN and Bradstreet (D&B) Data Universal Numbering System (DUNS) number to the new government-owned Unique Entity Identifier (UEI), applicants will be required to have a UEI to apply for federal grants or cooperative agreements. Yale’s UEI can be found on the Frequently Needed Yale Facts page of the OSP website. The System for Award Management (SAM) will become the central repository for the new UEI that will be incorporated into an institution’s SAM registration. Although agencies are not required to fully transition until April 2022, NIH, AHRQ, and FDA will transition for due dates on or after January 25, 2022, to align with standard application and review cycles.
- NIH will require the use of the updated Biographical Sketch and Other Support format pages for submissions on or after January 25, 2022. See NOT-OD-21-073, NOT-OD-21-110, and NOT-OD-21-122 for more information.
- Targeting due dates on or after January 25, 2022, all Senior/Key personnel listed on the R&R Senior/Key Person Profile (Expanded) form will be required to have an eRA Commons username (Commons ID). Extension of the existing eRA Commons ID requirement to include all senior/key personnel will facilitate better data collection for individuals contributing to federally funded research as well as assist in disambiguating data on applications and facilitating the identification of conflicts of interest in peer review. See NOT-OD-21-109 and NOT-OD-21-169 for more information.

For a transition period, both FORMS-F and FORMS-G application packages will be active simultaneously. Applicants must choose the appropriate application package for their due date when presented with both FORMS-F and FORMS-G application packages on the same FOA (see table below).
If your intended due date is... | You must use...
--- | ---
On or before January 24, 2022, including:
- Applications submitted for due dates on or before January 24, 2022
- Applications submitted under NIH Late Policy 2-week window of consideration for intended due dates on or before January 24, 2022
- Applications submitted by February 1, 2022 under NIH Continuous Submission Policy for the January 7, 2022 AIDS intended due date | FORMS-F application package

On or after January 25, 2022, including:
- Applications submitted for due dates on or after January 25, 2022
- All application types (New, Resubmission, Renewal, Revision)
- Applications submitted early for intended due dates on or after January 25, 2022 | FORMS-G application package

Applications submitted using the incorrect application package for their due date may be withdrawn and removed from funding consideration.

6 NCURA WEBINAR: COST SHARE: TACKLING THE CHALLENGES

In Research Administration, we talk about cost sharing as a real cost to our institutions and we recognize what is at stake if we don’t meet a cost share commitment. We often wish we could redefine commitments that were made in the proposal because they are difficult to track, and we find ourselves scrambling to resolve shortages or recovery from internal sources at the very end.

This webinar goes beyond the basic definition of cost share. Webinar hosts will discuss their experiences and share how they tackled cost share challenges throughout the life of the project. Case studies will be used, and best practices shared as you consider how to alleviate some of the administrative burden.

Topics Covered

- Alternative ways to promote resources to agencies, without committing to tracked cost share.
- The importance of communication and shared tracking responsibilities.
- How to proactively manage cost share to avoid close out issues, rework, and loss of time and money.
