1 OSP BROWN BAG MEETING

As usual, we had a great turnout for the monthly OSP Brown Bag meeting! This month's agenda offered a new format: What's on Your Mind: Questions from the Community. The after-meeting survey results confirm that the Q&A session was well received and that you would like to see this format again, but as an addition to, not a replacement for, the in-depth topic presentations.

A video of the May Brown Bag meeting and a copy of the What's on Your Mind questions and answers are now posted on the OSP Brown Bag website.

2 OSP TRAINING UPDATE

As a reminder, in accordance with University guidance, instructor-led in person classes have been cancelled indefinitely. We will be offering the June Clinical Trials Budgeting class via Zoom. As we move forward through this evolving situation, we will be making decisions about future classes, and those registered for class will be notified of any changes via email.

Online training is available for many of the OSP courses on the OSP TMS website. Feel free to preview class presentations for all OSP training courses on the OSP Research Administrators training website.

3 UPDATED DUE DATE FOR INSTITUTIONAL TRAINING GRANT (T32) APPLICATIONS

Due to the emergency declaration related to (COVID-19), the National Institutes of Health have announced that the Training grant applications submitted to the Parent Funding Opportunity Announcements PA-20-142 and PA-20-162, with a due date of May 25, will now be accepted through June 30, 2020.
