FUNDING

$75,000 per year for a period of 3 years ($67,500 direct costs per year). (Total: $225,000)

NOMINATION LIMITATION

For this deadline, Yale may nominate one (1) candidate for the Foundation's conventional or mainstream research program and one (1) candidate for the Foundation's integrative research program using complementary therapies or botanical agents. For additional information for Integrative proposals, see: <http://www.gabriellesangels.org/assets/brochures/INTEGRATIVE-PROJECT-INFORMATION.pdf>.

PURPOSE

The Foundation funds cutting-edge research in the fields of leukemia, lymphoma, and related cancers of the blood. Funds support promising scientists who are applying novel and state-of-the-art techniques to address fundamental problems in their genesis and treatment. Of interest are innovative clinical and basic science research that will lead to novel therapeutic approaches that could replace, or be used in combination with existing effective therapies. Focus is on projects for cancer prevention, detection and treatment that are most likely to be translated into clinical trials within a 3-5 year period.

ELIGIBILITY

- Eligibility is limited to assistant professors with the PhD or MD who are within 5 years of their first appointment as assistant professor.

RECENT RECIPIENT AT YALE

2016, Samuel Katz
