

Call to Request Your Free Kit!

You may be eligible to receive one of the following kits containing free products and information to help you with parenting and adult care responsibilities.

The Adult Care Kit—If you are caring for an older loved one, the Adult Care Kit provides information and products designed to help seniors with daily living.

The Prenatal Kit—If you are expecting a child, the Prenatal Kit can help you plan for a healthy pregnancy and childbirth—and educate you about child care and parenting issues.

The Child Safety Kit—If you have a child under age three, the Child Safety Kit can help you protect him or her from today's most prevalent dangers.

The College Kit—If you have a college-bound child or college freshman, the College Kit, filled with practical products and safety information, will help him or her transition smoothly into college life.

To request your free Kit, simply call Yale Counseling and Support Services day or night at 1-800-327-9240 (or 1-800-873-1322 for TDD/TTY service).

(Please note, you must meet eligibility requirements listed under each kit description.)

Plus, Yale Counseling and Support Services can also provide information and referrals to assist you with pregnancy, child care, adult care, college financial aid issues, and much more!
